

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Software that manages and controls auxiliary browsers based on user inputs, related information and/or links on the Internet, and more particularly, a browser plug-in 5 software that accesses correlating links or websites based on user inputs, manages and controls the location of auxiliary browsers, such as browsers that display banner advertisements on a host website, links to secondary Internet addresses available in the banner browser, and provides simultaneous viewing of information at the secondary Internet address and information related to the banner and its links in the auxiliary 10 browser.